

what I said

the probability of a breakthrough infection is less than the probability of being infected if you aren't vaccinated the probability of a breakthrough infection is probably less than 74% what they heard